

Governor announces 'Hoosier Homegrown' energy plan

(August 11) Governor Daniels and Lieutenant Governor Skillman unveiled the state's new strategic energy plan, aimed at boosting Indiana jobs and growth through greater production of various forms of energy within the state, during a series of statewide meetings.

Read the news release

View the Hoosier Homegrown energy plan

Governor's Update

Volume 1, Issue 6
August 7-13, 2006

[Click to listen to audio of the governor's energy plan
announcement](#)

State's largest ethanol plant to locate at Port of Indiana in Mount Vernon

(August 11) On the same day he announced the state's strategic energy plan, Governor Daniels also announced construction of a new ethanol plant, which will be the state's largest.

Read the news release

Governor Daniels participates in the first-ever Indianapolis Navy Week

(August 7) Representatives of the United States Navy joined Governor Daniels in his office to kickoff Indianapolis Navy Week, a week-long celebration of the partnership between Hoosiers and the US Navy.

To view more pictures of the Navy Week event and other events, click here

Petoskey Plastics picks Hartford City for new facility, company to create 50 new jobs

(August 9) Read the news release

Governor opens first state-sponsored firefighter training center

(August 9) Read the news release

Visa debit cards on the way for unemployment insurance recipients

(August 9) Read the news release